DEDICATION

Martha,
 You are a very pretty and intelligent girl and I have loved having you in class. I wish you the best of everything and I hope you find much happiness
 during your years at CCHS. I hope you may have accidentally learned some English this year in spite of me. Love
 Rick McKee

The man to whom the Seniors wish to dedicate their yearbook does much more than teach — he gives. He gives his students encouragement, friendship, laughter, and understanding. He has contributed much to our school and has played a very large part in our lives these past four years. We hold him in high esteem for his sincere devotion to CCHS and its students, and for his willingness to share so much of himself and his time. So, to show our love and appreciation for all he has done, we, the Seniors of 1978, proudly dedicate this year's Silver Shield to MR. RICKEY McKEE.

LINDA FOSHEE

It's hard to dance and flex your muscles at the same time.

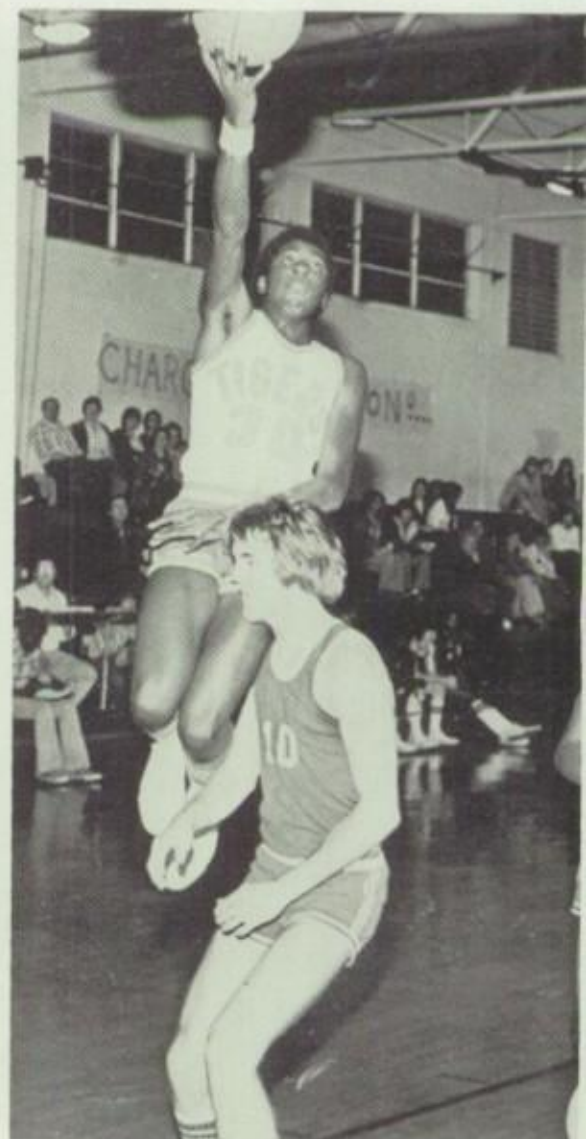

He's just like a piece of furniture, his chest is in his drawers.

Eat your heart out, Farrah!

My last year and they still won't let me do the hard ones.

Put me down, you fool!

Miss Silver Shield, 1978?

And Now do you spell relief? T Y P I N G.

My makeup is so thick my eyes are stuck.

But Daddy, you said I would win!

They really make me sick!

And who's my next victim?

"Short people got nobody"

Cam was just "Akin" to get her picture in the annual.

Where do I go from here?

Lord, you said all we had to do was ask!

Sometimes I sit and think, and sometimes I just sit.

All in a day's work.

Hands off the merchandise, Deanie.

Okay, where is she?

Just singing those housewife blues.

THINK and surprise us!

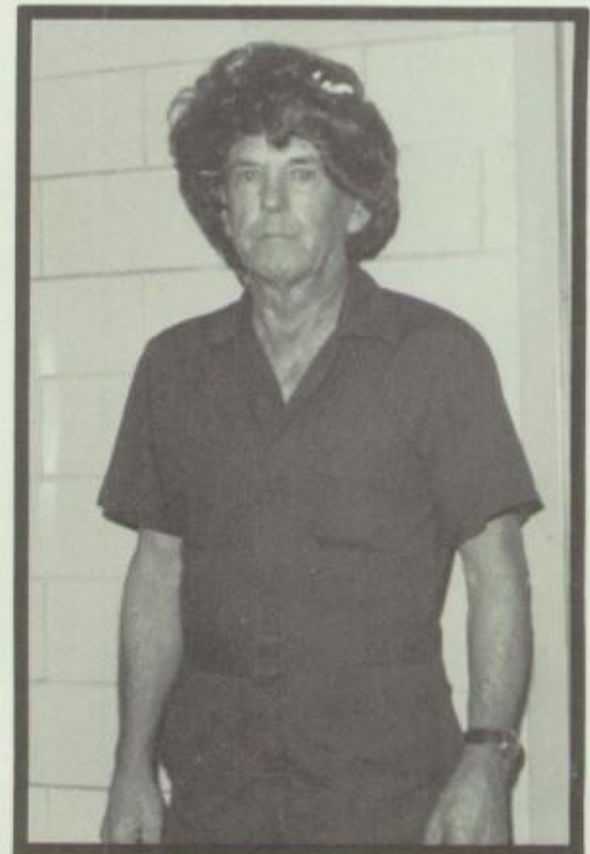

Hi! It's Howdy Doody time.

Hold on David, there's another one!

FACULTY

to be better friends next year than we already are.
Best of luck in the future.

MEMORIES . . .

Big m, Porky; Glover,

When you first came to Volleyball practice I didn't know who in the world you were, but when you laughed that did it. We have been through a lot too. I kinda wish I wasn't going out for Colorguard, maybe I won't get it so I can go out for Volleyball. I can't seem to write because of M & twin laughing. Just think you will be a big sophomore next year. Just remember all the fun we have had and more to come!

Love
Big B

P.S.

I write real slow!
